

TUITION FEES 2022/23

You can access information on University fees, bursaries, scholarships and any available help with the cost of fees for your programme (course of study) from the University website. You may be able to take out a loan to cover all or part of your tuition fees.

For fees and funding enquiries please contact the Student Life Team on:

T: 01642 335018

E: studentlife@tees.ac.uk

or the student support advisers in the Student Union Student Support (SUSS). Clarification of the eligibility of students to pay home fees can be found at <http://www.ukcisa.org.uk/>.

(On-Campus students referred to in this document means those students who would normally study on-Campus but due to the restrictions imposed in relation to Covid-19 are studying either on-line or through the hybrid model).

For full time programmes of a duration of more than one academic year, the published fee is an annual fee, payable each year, for the duration of the programme. Your annual tuition fees cover your first attempt at all of the modules necessary to complete that academic year which includes a reassessment attempt of any failed components of the module. A re-study of any modules will incur additional charges calculated by the number of credits.

European Union students (not including Ireland) will no longer be able to claim UK Government funding or the lower Home (EU) fee rates for programmes starting from August 2021. European Union students will therefore be required to pay the international fee rate. The UK Government has confirmed that continuing students with an EU fee status who commence prior to 1 August 2021 will continue to pay the Home rate of tuition fees for the duration of their programme.

For more information please see www.gov.uk/government/news/student-support-in-england.

Exemptions apply to those who have settled or pre-settled status under the EU Settlement Scheme, as well as Irish nationals, who may still be eligible for the UK tuition fee rate and associated financial support. Irish nationals should apply to Student Universal Support Ireland (SUSI).

Home tuition fees may be subject to annual increases but will not increase more than the UK Government's maximum regulated tuition fee limit set for the relevant academic year.

International fees are fixed at the same level as the year of first registration for all years of study on the programme. However, the fee may change if you change your course.

UK Sponsors (e.g. NHS) who sponsor Skilled Worker (previously Tier 2) or Temporary Worker - Government Authorised Exchange (T5) previously (Tier 5) employees on University courses will pay the Home fee for those students.

Any eligible discounts will be applied net of scholarships and bursaries.

The annual fees for students first registering onto a programme in the academic year 2022/23 are:

On-Campus Home fees:

1) Undergraduate (Full-time)

Full-time undergraduate degrees (including Foundation Year and MOBIE BSc)	£9,250

Enhanced tier fees:

Enhanced fees are charged for certain programmes (MA/MSc) to reflect the higher costs associated with these disciplines

2. On-Campus Research degree Tuition fees (MPhil and PhD)

Full-time Enhanced Tier per annum	£6,000
Full-time Standard Tier per annum	£4,400
Part-time Enhanced Tier per annum	£3,000
Part-time Standard Tier per annum	£2,200
Postgraduate Research Degree Writing up fee (*) see writing up fee note below	£650

Enhanced tier fees:

Enhanced tier fees are charged for some PhD and MPhil programmes in some topics/subject areas in which significantly higher costs are expected to be incurred in supporting the research. These enhanced fees represent a contribution towards these increased costs. Typically programmes charged enhanced tier fees include but are not necessarily limited to research in engineering, bioscience and clinical research requiring use of specialist facilities, high cost consumables and/or software. Where the enhanced tier fee is payable this will be clearly stated in the offer letter.

Writing-up fee (*):

After a period of three years (five years for part-time students), and subject to confirmation from the Postgraduate Research Assessment Board that sufficient progress has been made and that the data gathering and analysis phase of the project has been largely completed, students are entitled to a period of one year (two years for part-time students) at which a reduced writing-up fee is payable. The writing-up fee for 2022/23 is £650 - this flat fee covers the writing-up period. If the work is not submitted for examination within the designated writing-up period, the fee will normally revert to the standard fee for the following year until the date of submission of the thesis. This writing up fee is for students that started their research degree in 2016/7 or later. Students that started prior to this date will be charged the part time fee that was applicable as at their start date.

All Postgraduate Research students who were current between April and June 2020 will be eligible for a 3-month extension to their writing-up period (normally 12 months). This could be further extended by up to an additional 3 months subject to a successful application to the University in respect of their extenuating circumstances.

*There may be exceptions to the above listed fees, therefore you must check with your Programme. Further information is available at <http://www.tees.ac.uk/pg/fees>.

3. On-Campus Post Graduate taught degree (part-time or full time) - 10% tuition fee discount (Home students only) *

You may be able to benefit from a 10% discount towards a postgraduate taught degree (part-time or full-time) tuition fee if you meet one of the following criteria:

- you are a continuing Teesside University student progressing, with no break in study, from an undergraduate to a postgraduate taught degree course; or
- you have completed and graduated from an undergraduate degree course at Teesside University from the academic year 2020/21; or
- you have completed and graduated with a first-class honours from an undergraduate degree course at any other university in the last two academic years (2020/21 or 2021/22), supporting evidence is required.

*This offer cannot be used in conjunction with any other fee reduction scheme or discount offer. The University reserves the right to amend the amount of any reduction and/or the qualifying criteria at any time.

This offer applies to students enrolling on a postgraduate course for September 2022 only and the discount will automatically be applied to your fee if you meet the qualifying criteria.

5. Support for On-Campus Postgraduate Research (MPhil and PhD) study

All of the following postgraduate research opportunities are linked to specific research topics and funding routes, and are recruited on a competitive basis. A summary of each funded route can be found below. For further details on each of these schemes, their eligibility criteria and how to apply, please see our website (research pages).

5.1 Research Council Doctoral Training Partnership Studentships

The University currently participates in a number of UK Research and Innovation (UKRI) Doctoral Training Partnership programmes. These programmes are open to UK, and international students. UK students who have been ordinarily resident in the UK for at least three years can apply for full awards comprising full tuition fees, a stipend to cover living expenses at UKRI rates (£15,609 for 2021/22) and access to the Research Training Support Grant held by the DTP to which students may apply for additional support to cover specific expenses associated with the programme. International students will become eligible for a certain number of full studentships (30% of the total number of awards available) from 2021.

5.2 University Research Studentships

These are fully funded research opportunities which are offered on a competitive basis, and which cover all fees associated with PhD study, together with a stipend (currently £16,000 per annum tax free, unless stated otherwise) to cover living expenses for four years. Applications are welcome from strong Home and international students. International candidates will be required to obtain the appropriate UK study visa.

For more information on the eligibility criteria and the University research studentships visit our website.

5.3 Fees-funded Studentships

These research opportunities are offered on a competitive basis and cover all fees associated with full-time PhD study for up to 4 years. Applications are welcome from strong Home and international students. International candidates will be required to obtain the appropriate UK study visa. As these Studentships do not include a stipend for living expenses, applicants are required to have access to sufficient resources to successfully undertake the PhD on this basis - for example through other funding mechanisms, government sponsorship, self-supporting.

For more information on the eligibility criteria and the fees only studentships visit our website.

Postgraduate Writing up fee	£650

Enhanced tier fees:

Enhanced tier fees are charged for some PhD and MPhil programmes in some topics/subject areas in which significantly higher costs are expected to be incurred in supporting the research. These enhanced fees represent a contribution towards these increased costs. Typically programmes charged enhanced tier fees include but are not necessarily limited to research in engineering, bioscience and clinical research requiring use of specialist facilities, high cost consumables and/or software. Where the enhanced tier fee is payable this will be clearly stated in the offer letter.

Writing-up fee:

After a period of three years for full-time (five years for part-time) and subject to confirmation from the Postgraduate Research Assessment Board that sufficient progress has been made and that the data gathering and analysis phase of the project has been largely completed, students are entitled to a period of one year (two years for part-time students) at which a reduced writing-up fee is payable. The 2021/22 writing-up fee is set out above. This is a flat fee which covers the writing-up period. If the work is not submitted for examination within the designated writing-up period, the fee will normally revert to the standard fee for the following year until the date of submission of the thesis. The writing up fee of £650 is applicable to students that started their research degree in 2016/17 or later. Students with a prior start date will be charged the part-time home fee as at their start date in their writing up year.

All Postgraduate Research students who were current between April and June 2020 will be eligible for a 3 month extension to their writing-up period (normally 12 months). This could be further extended by up to an additional 3 months subject to a successful application to the University in respect of their extenuating circumstances.

Scholarships and awards for on-campus overseas students

1. China Scholarships and Bursaries

Teesside University offers a range of scholarships and bursaries for Chinese nationals. We offer bursaries of £500-£1,000 for all new full-time on-campus students and a range of merit scholarships with a value of £500-£4,000 for outstanding students. For more information and eligibility criteria, please contact our China Regional Office at china@tees.ac.uk.

2. Teesside University Advance

Teesside University Advance is available to all new entrants enrolling on year 0 or year 1 and direct entrants onto year as a full-time undergraduate degree student for Academic Year 2022/23 on a Teesside University course leading to an award of at least 360 credits delivered on Teesside University's Middlesbrough or Darlington Campus. It excludes direct entrants onto year 3, students repeating year 3 or progressing to year 3 following reduced credit after repeating year 2 study who started their undergraduate course prior to the introduction of the scheme.

As part of the Teesside University Advance scheme the University will offer the following to students: -

- an Apple iPad installed with Office 365 software, the University's student portal, access to email, timetables, virtual learning environment and library resources
- an iPad compatible keyboard
- £100 credit per academic year (up to a maximum of £300) to purchase learning resources from the Online Bookstore. This is subject to eligible students progressing on their course and excludes eligible students that are repeating a year, on a sandwich year or integrated masters final year of study.

For more information about Teesside University Advance, including terms and conditions, visit our website.

3. Vice-Chancellor's Scholarship

This prestigious scholarship recognises applications from outstanding students who can demonstrate their skills and commitment to becoming future global leaders. The University will award up to 30 Vice-Chancellor's Scholarships of £5,000 each, allocated as a fee waiver in the first year of study, to assist international students, enrolling in September 2022 for the first time at Teesside University, to study an undergraduate degree or postgraduate taught degree. For more information on the eligibility criteria and the Vice-Chancellor's Scholarship visit our website.

4. British Council GREAT Scholarship

We have four scholarships, each of £10,000 available to students from the following countries enrolling on postgraduate programmes in the academic year 2022/23.

- Bangladesh
- Malaysia
- Sri Lanka
- Nigeria

Candidates will be automatically considered for this scholarship; no separate scholarship application is necessary. For more information on the eligibility criteria and the British Council GREAT Scholarship visit our website.

5. Country and Partner Scholarships

Teesside University offers a range of scholarships, allocated as a fee waiver, for eligible international students from priority partners and territories. For more information on the eligibility criteria and the Country and Partner Scholarships visit our website.

6. Family Loyalty Discount

The Family Loyalty Discount is for international students studying on campus.

Where a student (the first student) is studying at Teesside University and a second (or further) family member commences study at the University whilst the first student remains enrolled as a student, the second (or further) family member is eligible to apply for a family discount if they apply directly to us and do not use an agent.

The discount applies to eligible family members who are studying for a Teesside University qualification at undergraduate or postgraduate level at the same time as the first family member whereby you have applied directly to us and no agents have been used. The programme of study being followed by all family members claiming the Family Loyalty Discount must be at least 120 credits.

It entitles you to £1,500 fee deduction for the second and any further family members in the first year of study only.

You must be the sibling, spouse, civil partner or child of someone who is currently studying on a full-time course at Teesside University. That relative must also be classified as an international student.

- Siblings: you and your sibling can have one or both parents in common.
- Children/parents: you can be related by blood or by marriage.
- Spouses/Civil Partners: You cannot become eligible for this discount by marrying/entering into a civil partnership with someone who is currently studying at the University.

It is necessary to apply for the Family Loyalty Discount and we recommend that you apply when registering for your course or soon after. Applications cannot be accepted more than two months after your course start date. Our Admissions team will consider your application and will let you know whether or not it has been approved.

Where the University is required to pay Agent's commission in respect of a student enrolment any Family Loyalty Discount awarded in error will be cancelled and the student will become liable for the increase in fees due.

Support for On-Campus Postgraduate Research (MPhil and PhD) study

All of the following postgraduate research opportunities are linked to specific research topics and funding routes, and are recruited on a competitive basis. A summary of each funded route can be found below. For further details on each of these schemes, their eligibility criteria and how to apply, please see our website (research pages)

1. University Research Studentships

These are fully funded research opportunities which are offered on a competitive basis, and which cover all fees associated with PhD study, together with a stipend

(currently £15,000 per annum tax free, unless stated otherwise) to cover living expenses for three years. Applications are welcome from strong UK and international students. International candidates will be required to obtain the appropriate UK study visa unless they are eligible Home candidates.

For more information on the eligibility criteria and the University research studentships visit our website.

2. Fees Funded Studentships

These research opportunities are offered on a competitive basis and cover all fees associated with full-time PhD study. Applications are welcome from strong Home and international students. International candidates will be required to obtain the appropriate UK study visa. As these Studentships do not include a stipend for living expenses, applicants are required to have access to sufficient resources to successfully undertake the PhD on this basis - for example through other funding mechanisms, government sponsorship, self-supporting.

For more information on the eligibility criteria and the studentships visit our website.

3. Commonwealth Scholarships

In partnership with The Commonwealth Scholarship Commission in the UK, we offer three scholarships that fully cover tuition fees to candidates from certain Commonwealth countries. These are offered under six themes. For more information on the eligibility criteria visit our website

Alumni Scholarship £1,000:

If you are an international student who studied at Teesside University at undergraduate level and you progress to a postgraduate course - or you complete a Masters degree with us and progress to a new postgraduate programme, you are awarded a £1,000 Alumni Scholarship on your first year fees for the next programme. This is providing you apply directly to us and do not use an agent. The £1,000 is awarded as a discount on your first-year fees for the next programme.

12) Online or Distance learning courses

Note: These fees apply to students studying exclusively off-Campus and by distance learning

HNC/HND

Course costs:

For a Higher National Certificate (HNC) you study eight modules at £495 for each module. For the Higher National Diploma (HND) you study a maximum of 16 modules, again at £495 each. You usually pay for one module at a time. Some modules are subject to availability.

If you join the course having completed no appropriate HNC modules previously, the total cost of an HNC is currently £3,960 for the 8 modules required and an HND is another £3,960 on top of this for the additional 8 modules you will need to study

All payments for modules must be made through the Online Shop unless alternative arrangements have been specifically agreed.

Paying Tuition Fees:

The options for paying tuition fees are detailed in the University's Fees and Charges Regulations 2022/23.

The preferred method of payment is via the University's online payment site at www.tees.ac.uk/payonline and selecting "pay a student invoice." Student ID number and date of birth are required to validate the account. International students also have the option to pay in their home currency here <https://student.globalpay.wu.com/teesside#!/>

If students opting to pay by instalments have missed any payment dates, all arrears will be taken from the payment card on the date the recurring credit/debit card plan is set up.

Please note that longer processing times may be experienced with methods other than payment through the online payment site which offers the most efficient payment experience.
